May Newsletter

Welcome to your May Newsletter, keeping you up to date with all things at Avalon Vets.

Staff News

We will be saying a sad goodbye to Registered Veterinary Nurse Megan at the end of May. She has accepted a position closer to home.

Megan, all the best in your new job. You will be missed!

We are actively recruiting for a veterinary nurse, so watch this space.

Animal care assistant Chloe has received the good news that she has been accepted to start her training as a veterinary nurse. She will continue to work at the practice throughout her training.

Well done Chloe, we know you will be a brilliant vet nurse!

Many of you will have now met our new vet Shi Ning.

Shi Ning is currently completing her Graduate Development Programme, under the supervision of her more experienced colleagues.

At Avalon Veterinary Clinic we are dedicated to continually furthering our training, to allow us to provide the very best care for your pets.

Vet Alison is currently undergoing extensive training in animal behaviour.

We will soon be offering a home visit service for complex behaviour cases. To register an interest, please email alison@avalonvet.co.uk.

Did you know our veterinary nurses are your pets' anaesthetists?

Registered veterinary nurse Julie is currently doing further training in anaesthesia to allow us to even better monitor your pets when you entrust them to our care.

May Offers

- Refer a friend discount. £10 discount for each of you, applied to the next visit.
- 5% off dental treatment. We are continuing this popular offer throughout May. Book a free dental check with our veterinary nurses.
- Free blood pressure check for cats over 7 years. Worth £23.05. Why? Studies have found hypertension (high blood pressure) in 1 in 5 apparently healthy older cats. Left untreated it can cause serious signs, such as sudden onset blindness, heart disease and neurological signs. Check our Facebook page for a video of a cat having its blood pressure measured. To book, please contact us on 0141 956 4234.

Finally, we would like to thank you for your ongoing support of our independent, family run veterinary practice.

If you need assistance with anything at all, please don't hesitate to contact practice manager Anna on anna@avalonvet.co.uk
